

Minor in Criminology

Note that any course applied toward the total hours of one major or minor may not also be applied toward the total credit hours of another major or minor. When a major or minor have courses that overlap with one another or with another major or minor, students are required to take additional course(s), as approved by the sociology undergraduate advisor.

The criminology minor requires a total of 21 hours (seven courses). The core courses are 101; 205 or 213; 312; and two courses from the following 400 level electives: 412, 414, 416, 419, 423, 424, 425, 426 or 427 (two of these are required, but additional courses from the set may be used as electives). The 21 hours must also include 6 hours from a list of designated electives.

A cumulative grade point average of 2.25 or better in all courses completed is required for regular admission to the criminology minor. Courses taken CR/NC cannot be applied to minor requirements.

	Course	Grade
Sociology	101	_____ 3

Revised April 2018

205 or 213	_____	3
312	_____	3
two of {412, 414, 416, 419; 423, 424, 425, 426;427}	_____	3
	_____	3
Approved Electives	_____	3
	_____	3

Approved Electives

Sociology

205 Crime, Public Policy and the Criminal Justice System *
213 Deviance*
Any 300 or 400 level UNM Sociology or Criminology Course

Approved Electives Continued.

Anthropology 251

Philosophy 381 (380)

Political Science 270, 301, 303 (215), 315, 316, 317, 375, 415, 470

Psychology 331, 332, 430

* Students may not count the same course as both a core criminology course and an elective.

Revised Spring 2017