

SOCI 398.005

CRN: 61730

T/TH: 3:30-4:45 PM

Spring 2024 Course:
INTRODUCTION TO FAT STUDIES

THIS COURSE WILL EXPLORE:

- the historical development of institutional fatphobia
- the relationship between fatphobia and capitalism
- the intersections of fatphobia and other forms of oppression
- how fatphobia impacts fat people (and people of all sizes!)
- body positivity, Health at Every Size, weight neutral and fat liberationist movements and activism
- and more!

Please contact the instructor, Cassidy Boe, with any questions or concerns: cboe@unm.edu

This course will be taught by a self-identified fat person and welcomes students of all sizes, experiences, and levels of knowledge surrounding the field of fat studies.